Executive Director Report – Patti Wilczek

Summary

- Facilities update
- Revising policies continues
- WASC: Supporting ACLC and Nea's efforts

1. Facilities update

Negotiations to purchase the Bay Farm building failed when we were informed by the Port of Oakland that they would not remove a clause in the deed which prohibits public schools from occupying that site. My efforts to identify additional classroom space continue. I will be working closely with CCSA staff on this project, as well as re-opening the exploration of feasibility of installing portables on our site.

2. Revising policies continues

CLCS, ACLC and Nea have a full range of policies, some of which haven't been revised in some time. The work of updating these continues, with the creation of a policy archive to ensure that all policies are located in one place.

4. WASC

ACLC will be hosting its 4-person WASC Visiting Committee this week. Preparations have been extensive leading up to their arrival on Sunday the 13th. We are all excited for the visit and eager to showcase our amazing program.

Nea's WASC interim report is nearing completion. This will be submitted to their Visiting Committee just prior to the Thanksgiving holiday.
